Would Rather Have Mouse Than a House

HAVANT, England (U.S.) — Stella Thompson, 37, has been left a large modern house by her late father, but she has decided not to move.

The mouse, a wild one which Miss Thompson tamed, has the run of her one-room flat. She calls him Will.

Damage From Hurricane Is In Millions

HOUSTON, Tex. (U.S.) — Communities in the water and debris-strewn wake of Hurricane Debra surveyed today millions of dollars in damages left by the wind, rain and inconvenience of the tropical storm.

Debra's path extended all the way from the Gulf coast, chemical and fishing center of Freeport, Tex., into southeastern Oklahoma.

She left behind smashed fishing and pleasure boats, flattened and washed out crops, shattered roofs and windows, felled trees and snarled traffic.

Industrial areas, which expected to catch some of the heaviest damage, escaped destruction.

The hardest blows from the storm which burst with only a few hours warning from the ocean were delivered instead to fleets of boats along the Gulf.

Small boats were swamped, shrimpers were slammed against pilings and other boats and pleasure craft were washed ashore or banged against docks and boat houses by high and vicious tides.

Girl Killed and Eight Hurt In Crash at Allegany Park

A special dispatch from Red House, N. Y., to the Jamestown Sun says a 15-year-old Little Valley girl was fatally injured and eight other people were hurt when two cars carrying a total of 15 passengers collided in Allegany State Park near here Sunday evening.

Sylvia Mary Cimbari of 106 Winship Avenue, Little Valley, died in Bradford (Pa.) General Hospital nearly three hours after the 5:15 p. m. crash.

State Park Rangers said the girl was one of six people riding in a car driven by Harry Askey, 18, of Killbuck.

Chief Ranger Oscar Lindberg, who is conducting the investigation, said the other auto, carrying nine people, was driven by Mrs. Marie Milks, 35, of 30 Homestead Avenue, Bradford.

Mrs. Milks was reported in "good" condition in Bradford General with a broken left knee, chin and forehead cuts.

LENINGRAD (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon flew to Leningrad today to begin a five-day swing through parts of the Soviet Union.

Soviet Deputy Premier Frol Kozlov and his wife were among those accompanying Nixon and his wife. Also along was Georgi Zhukov, chairman of the Soviet Foreign Cultural Relations.

Flying ahead were two planes carrying 88 American and foreign newsmen.

Nixon's departure from the Soviet capital was preceded by a weekend visit with Soviet Premier Khrushchev during which they discussed East-West differences for six hours.

Neither side would say whether the marathon talk had boosted chances for removal of the Soviet threat to Allied forces in West Berlin. But Nixon said the long exchange was helpful "because it provided an opportunity for frank and complete discussions in a calm and objective atmosphere."

A crowd of 1,000 greeted the vice president and his party at the Leningrad airport. It was nearly three times the number who turned out for their arrival in Moscow last Thursday.

Two American tourists joined the airport and held up a hastily scribbled "Welcome Nixon" sign. The vice president was delighted.

Although there was no loudspeaker system, Nixon said in a brief arrival speech he and Khrushchev had a "constructive and full discussion of the many (Turn to Page Ten)

Aluminum Workers Resume Negotiations

NEW YORK (AP) — Contract negotiations in the aluminum industry resume today. Present contracts covering about 58,000 employees of the big three expire Friday.

The big three are the Aluminum Co. of America, Reynolds Metals Co. and Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corp.

The United Steelworkers represents about 30,000 employees of the big three, with the rest represented by other unions, including the Aluminum Workers International Union.

Other legislative developments: Sunday Sales — A Senate-Passed bill to stiffen penalties for Sunday sales prohibited under the Blue Laws comes to a vote, probably Wednesday, in the House.

Radior — Sen. George N. Wade said he will distribute copies of a House-passed radar bill to his Highways Committee members Tuesday. The measure would legalize radar as a state police tool to check speeders.

Taxes — Johnson said Democrats will have to put their house in order before they can expect GOP help on a tax program.

MOTORBOAT TRAGEDY — A motorboat upset in Loyalhanna Dam near this Indiana County community Sunday, drowning its two occupants.

The victims were James R. Kronk, 22, of Penn. Westmoreland County, and Ed Grauerholtz, 20, of Greensburg R. D. 4.

DIES IN COLLISION — Mrs. Mary McGill, 69, of Harrisville, was killed Saturday in a two-car collision 20 miles north of Butler on Route 8. The driver of the other car was not hurt.

Those in the Askey car in the hospital are: Kirk Schine, 17, of Killbuck, reported owner of the car. Askey, 18, the driver.

Robert Early, 15, of Killbuck. Barbara Crooks, 14, of Killbuck.

Most of the Week Will Be Quite Warm

By Associated Press

Extended forecast for Tuesday, July 28, through Saturday, Aug. 1: Western Pennsylvania: Temperatures will average three or four degrees above normal. Quite warm through most of the week, except cooler over northern sections Friday and Saturday. Scattered and mostly afternoon and evening showers will become more general toward the end of the week and will total an inch or more.

Senate Talks Recess While House Works

HARRISBURG (AP) — The possibility of a Senate recess shaped up today in view of House failure to write a tax program after nearly five months of legislative infighting.

The recess plan was disclosed Sunday night by Sen. James S. Berger, Republican floor leader, after a three-hour meeting of the GOP Senate leaders.

"We discussed the advisability of having a recess of the Senate while the House (Democratic) majority gets itself adjusted and decides something on taxes," said Berger.

The collapse of a compromise 4 per cent sales tax plan hammered out by Republican and Democratic leaders threw the tax situation into a muddle two weeks ago. House Republicans had pledged 15 votes to help pass the measure but the Philadelphia Democratic delegation withdrew its support later.

The head of the Philadelphia delegation, Rep. James J. Dougherty, last week proposed a 235 million dollar package of business tax bills he said was worked out with U. S. Rep. William J. Green, Philadelphia Democratic chairman.

Turning to Dougherty's plan, Berger said Senate Republicans would "definitely consider it" if it reaches the upper chamber.

"But if you give business a red flag, there isn't any need for money for industrial development and other such programs," Berger added.

Other legislative developments: Sunday Sales — A Senate-Passed bill to stiffen penalties for Sunday sales prohibited under the Blue Laws comes to a vote, probably Wednesday, in the House.

WARNING TO U. S. ISSUED BY CASTRO

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro, swept back into the Cuban premiership as expected, by an enormous popular demonstration, served notice Sunday night he will be friends with the United States only if the United States does not get in his way.

The spectacular crowd estimated at nearly a million cheered wildly as he told them he would bow to "the will of the people" and resume office. The demonstration again underscored that the bearded, 32-year-old revolutionary leader is Cuba's strong man.

He asserted that Cuba is not a protectorate or colony of any other country but a free-sovereign nation and "we have to account to no one."

Castro said Cuba wants to be friends with all nations but can not be with those "who offend us, who insult us and who exploit us" nor with any vested interest which tries to "impose itself on the destiny of our people."

But in 2½ hours of talk, Castro failed to mention communism by name at all. He referred to it only obliquely, when hitting at his critics, but apparently did not feel it necessary to deny their charges that he is letting the Reds influence his government.

Uptown Havana's vast Civic Plaza was packed with the shouting, cheering throng. Castro told it emotionally that from now on the "symbol of our revolution will be the machete," the long, sharp knife used for cutting sugar cane.

The announcement provoked furious response during which some 400,000 campesinos — farmers — brought from the provinces to swell the demonstration clashed their machetes in unison to add to the general uproar.

Castro made it clear that such mammoth demonstrations will be held whenever it is considered necessary to demonstrate popular support for his policies. That of Sunday, officially celebrating the anniversary of his 26th of July revolutionary movement, was called originally to demonstrate support for his land redistribution program.

Castro claimed it was only the will of the people that persuaded him to resume the premiership he left nine days ago to force the resignation of provisional President Manuel Urrutia.

Mediators Are Participating in New Strike Talks

NEW YORK (AP) — The first joint peace talks between industry and union since the start of the nationwide steel strike open here today under the auspices of federal mediators.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, reiterated his warning that no early or easy settlement of the 13-day-old strike appears likely.

Finnegan, who arranged the joint talks last week, said on his arrival from Washington Sunday night: "They can't settle this strike by not talking."

Heading the negotiating teams for today's talks are David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, and R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of the United States Steel Corp.

By MARY HARLAND

With the weatherman giving us a next to a perfect day, the local Jaycees readied the Alexander St. proving grounds, and at one o'clock sharp the fourth annual running of the Warren County Soap Box Derby got under way with large crowds of relatives and friends lining the familiar snow fence barricades to cheer their entrants. The rosters showed expressions of joy, pathos, and sheer delight as some 30 area boys, garbed in the official blue Derby helmet and white T-shirt crouched behind the wheels of their gravity-propelled crates and started the rounds of heat elimination through the finals to determine the new champion, and the lad who would take that thrilling 4-day all-expense paid trip to Akron, Ohio to compete in the 22nd All-American classic.

It was young Bruce Matve, 12 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Matve of Sugar Grove, RD 2, driving a sleek dark blue racer "Car No. 1," sponsored by Texas Lunch, who sped across the finish line a couple of Derby noses ahead of his opponent Allen Keller, to cop the coveted crown. His winning time was 24.1 seconds for completing the nearly 800 foot raceway and emerging the 1959 champion.

The events leading up to the finals were mighty hair-raising, as young Bruce whose twin brother Wayne, also in the big contest, found themselves racing each other in Division 4 of the Class B semi-finals. Racing to a dead heat in round one, the boys found themselves back on the starting ramp for a second try, and as Mrs. Matve chewed her fingernails back to the elbow, the boys whipped down the course to the finish (Turn to Page Nine)

CONFERENCE MOVES INTO NINTH WEEK

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP) — The United States and France were reported holding firm today against British pressure to cut down Western terms for a Berlin agreement with the Soviet Union and clear the way for an early summit conference.

As the Big Four foreign ministers conference moved into its ninth week, U.S. and British officials sought to play down the difference and deny any threat to allied unity.

Some privately conceded, however, that the maneuvering has created an appearance of weakness under Soviet hammering on critical Berlin and German issues.

Associates said Secretary of State Christian A. Herter is still determined to try to get an agreement from the Soviets Andrei A. Gromyko to protect West Berlin. He is reported equally determined (Turn to Page Ten)

West Coast Fight Promoter Reports Suspicious Fire

LOS ANGELES (U.S.) — A flesh fire broke out late Sunday night in the home of boxing promoter Jackie Leonard, who on June 3 said he was beaten after receiving threats from underworld figures trying to muscle into boxing.

Leonard said he and his wife, Jeanne, and two women visitors were watching television when the fire started in a front bedroom.

He said the wire screen covering of the bedroom window had been torn open.

"I called the fire department and arson squad investigators," Leonard said. "I threw several pans of water on the fire and was able to get it out before they arrived."

Leonard said this was the second incident at his home in the last two weeks. On July 12, he said, a gallon can half full of gasoline was found on the front porch of his home. He said gasoline had been splashed on the window sill and side of the house.

Peace Justice Personally Serves Blue Law Violators

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP) — "There's more than one way to skin a cat," figured Justice of the Peace Earl B. Dougherty. That, he said, is the theory he applied Sunday to Pennsylvania's Sunday blue laws.

Dougherty spent the day driving through Bucks County, just north of Philadelphia, handing out 159 conviction-on-sight notices. The recipients included actress Peggy Cass, two toll booth collectors, a radio announcer, numerous plant guards, a druggist, newspaper reporters and photographers following them.

"I'm actually against the Sunday blue laws," Dougherty said. "They're chaotic and outmoded and if they were strictly enforced would strangle Pennsylvania's entire economy."

"I'm a justice of the peace and it's my duty to enforce the law. So I did."

He reached the Bristol Playhouse, a summer theater, during the first act intermission and asked to see Miss Cass. "Are you worldly employed?" he asked, after introducing himself.

"Yes," said Miss Cass. "Are you being paid?"

"Yes."

"I hereby convict you on view for violation of the Sunday blue laws." He handed her a notice.

"Why I've never won a thing, and I'd rather not win this," the actress joked.

But, like the others, she must, according to the notice, appear today before Dougherty and pay a $4 fine plus $9 costs.

Dougherty's tour came at a time when the State House is considering a Senate-passed bill increasing the fine for violating the 1794 blue laws to $100 for the first offense and $200 for each subsequent offense. The purpose is to discourage merchants who consider the $4 fine a business expense.

Exciting Finishes Feature Winner in Three Classes

The heats in Saturday afternoon's thrilling fourth annual running of the Warren County Soap Box Derby on Alexander Street Downs were run off by twos, beginning with the entrants in Class 11 and 12 year olds. Here is a close account of how they finished in the world famous community activity and greatest amateur racing event for boys.

CLASS B—DIVISION ONE

Heat 1—Wayne Matve Car No. 102 sponsored by Lottsville Farm Exchange over Jack Schumann Car No. 115 sponsored by Anderson's Super Market in 24.0 seconds, after a dead heat in the first run with a 23.2 fastest heat of the day.

Heat 2—David Sampson Car No. 112 sponsored by Educated Cleaners over Ed Schmidt Car No. 109 sponsored by Valone's Atlantic in 23.8 seconds.

Heat 3—George Webster Car No. 119 sponsored by Farrar Grotto over Charles Armstrong Car No. 108 sponsored by Times Sq. News in 24.0 seconds.

Heat 4—Bruce Matve Car No. 1 sponsored by Texas Lunch over Gary Cooper Car No. 104 sponsored by Nino's Restaurant in 23.8 seconds.

Heat 5—Dan LaVigne Car No. 111 sponsored by George's Friendly Service over Ronald Engel Car No. 117 sponsored by Warren Observer in 24.0 seconds.

Heat 6—Barry Clark Car No. 116 sponsored by 400 Block Merchants over Robert Rice Car No. 113 sponsored by his father in 24.2 seconds.

Heat 7—Ted Proukou Car No. 110 sponsored by Fago's Pennzill over Charles Church Car No. 107 sponsored by Logan's Men's Wear in 24.0 seconds.

Heat 8—David Kent Car No. 127 sponsored by Mahan Rambler drew a BYE.

CLASS B—DIVISION TWO

Heat 1—Wayne Matve nosed out David Sampson in 23.8 seconds.

Heat 2—Bruce Matve sweeping past the finish line in 23.7 seconds defeating George Webster after a first try ending in dead heat 23.6.

Heat 3—Denny LaVigne beat out Barry Clark in 24.0 seconds.

Heat 4—Ted Proukou nosing out David Kent who drew the bye in 24.0 seconds.

CLASS B—DIVISION THREE

Bruce Matve and twin brother Wayne pit their skills against each other as they race to a dead heat in the first round. Time 23.7 seconds. In the re-match, brother Bruce, bigger of the twins, nosed out his brother in 23.6 for the chance to enter the semi-finals against Ted Proukou. This event proved a highlight of the day, as Mrs. Matve, mother of the twins nervously awaited the announcement regarding which of her boys had emerged the winner. Difficult to congratulate the one, and not the other, all she could say to Wayne was "You'll be able to take a whack at it again next year." This statement seemed to appease the loser, who appeared not to be too troubled that his brother, older by five minutes had nosed him out of the competition. May the best man win!

And in the semi-final Bruce Matve sped to the finish line in 23.8 seconds to nose out Ted Proukou for the coveted crown of Class B Champion.

(Boys from 13 to 15 years of age inclusive) — Division One—Class A:

Heat 1—Leonard Engel Car No. 18—Sponsored by Pleasant Keystone Service over William Wilkers Car No. 26 sponsored by J. B. Connolly in 24.2 seconds.

Heat 2—Allen Keller Car No. 5 sponsored by Mason's Grocery over Dennis Seymour Car No. 27, sponsored by Guher's in 24.0 seconds.

Heat 3—Dennis Sampson Car No. 50 sponsored by Brown's Boot Shop over Ray Nelson, Car No. 25 sponsored by Watt Office Supply in 23.8 seconds.

Heat 4—Gary Swanson Car No. 28 sponsored by Dorrien's over Carl Chamberlain Car No. 6 sponsored by Youngsville National Bank in 23.6 seconds.

Heat 5—Brent Borton Car No. 14 sponsored by Youngsville Kiwanis Club over Rodney Anderson Car No. 8 sponsored by Carlson Motors in 24.0 seconds.

Heat 6—Leslie Sanford Car 21 sponsored by Clark's was declared the winner of the heat after Tom Tortellott Car 20 sponsored by his father was disqualified due to extensive damage on his car in 24.2. The heat decided by photo finish camera and judges gave the heat to Sanford.

Heat 7—Schumann sped to victory over Dave Kent in 23.8 seconds when his scheduled opponent William Wilkers car was missing and he was disqualified.

Heat 8—Seymour nosed out Ray Nelson in 24.2 seconds.

Heat 9—Chamberlain drew a bye with his opponent's Rodney Anderson's car having a broken cable.

Heat 10—Schmidt defeated Engel in 24.2.

Heat 11—Schumann defeated Church in 23.6.

Heat 12—Seymour nosed out Chamberlain in 24.2 seconds and drew a bye.

Heat 13—Schumann sped past the finish line to defeat Schmidt in 24 seconds and repeated his skill in nosing out Seymour in 24.2 seconds to gain the title of Class C Consolation Award winner in the Derby.

Fastest heat of the day was attributed to Jack Schumann who in his very first heat of the day in Class B competition against Wayne Matve came to a dead heat in 23.2 seconds—with a re-match scheduled when Matve scored in front with an even 24.0 seconds.

And in the semi-final Swanson drew a Bye while Borton and Keller battled it out in 23.8 seconds with Keller emerging victor, and as Keller in Five youth camps at Wesley Woods near Grand Valley will complete the summer camping season of Methodist intermediate and senior youth.

The campus, sponsored by the Board of Education of the Erie Methodist Conference, will all be held in August.

A rustic camp for 7th through 9th grade youth will be held Aug. 3-9 under the direction of Rev. Jack G. Ammon of Erie.

A second rustic camp, for 9th graders only, will run from Aug. 10 to 20, under the direction of Rev. Jack E. Spencer of Erie and Rev. Donald C. Horton of McKean.

Rustic campers will live in tents, cook their own meals and plan camp life together out of doors.

Regular camps will be held for the same age groups by Rev. Henry A. Morris of Falls Creek and Rev. Robert Britton of Ringgold, Aug. 10-16; and by Rev. Jackson H. Parsons of Sheffield and Rev. Richard L. McEntarfer of Kennedy, N. Y., Aug. 24-30.

The final camp for 10th through 12th grade senior youth will be held Aug. 3-9, with Rev. Newton G. Swanson of Hickory and Rev. Russell E. Perry of Mercer providing the leadership.

In the regular camps, the youth are divided up into small "quest" groups. Through discussions, activities, recreation and fellowship they learn about Christian growth together.

CHURCHMEN INVITED

Moriah Lutheran Churchmen of Ludlow are invited to Wildcat Park at 7:30 this evening for a gathering sponsored by Mt. Jewett Churchmen.

LIONS' PROGRAM

At the Tuesday luncheon-meeting of Lions Club, 12:15 p. m. at the YWCA activities building, Program Chairman James Nordin has arranged a special event he promises will be of interest to the entire membership.

LIGHTNING FRANK

Lightning struck part of a herd of cattle owned by Robert B. Lyon of Clymer, N. Y., about 4 p. m. Thursday killing seven cows on the spot. Five others which were gathered under the same tree had to be killed because of injuries. Damage to the Lyon herd may run as high as $4,000. 12 cattle that were destroyed were part of a herd of nearly 60 and were all Holsteins except for two Gurnseys which Mr. Lyon had at his farm for testing.

GAME LAW VIOLATIONS

Five McKean county men were fined a total of more than $500 last week for game violations. District Game Protector John Putnam, Crosby, identified them as James Tronette, 27, Roulette; Ralph Stewart, 20, Port Allegany RD 1; Alfred Skillman, 24, Turtlepoint; David Gordon Clark Jr., 19, Crosby. The game protector said the five pleaded guilty to the same charge—using an artificial light on a deer while possessing a rifle. Peace Justice Edward M. Rosenswie, East Smethport, fined each defendant $100 and $9 in costs. Mr. Tronette paid, but the others were committed to McKean County jail at Smethport for non-payment of the fines.

AGREE ON PACT

Jamestown Sun: Bargaining committee representing Art Metal Construction Co. and its IAM Lodge 1559 signed a contract at 3 a. m. Sunday following 44 hours of negotiations with no interruptions, a reliable source informed The Sun. However, final approval of the contract that would end the 10-week-old strike is up to the lodge's 1,300 members at a meeting reportedly scheduled early this week. Work is expected to begin as soon as possible. A Jamestown Sun reporter, checking at the main plant on Jones and Gifford Ave. Sunday evening, found "On Strike" sign still in place and a half dozen pickets sitting in their cars, apparently still on duty, as they have been for the past 10 weeks. No details of the contract were available. The basic issues, according to the company, has been management's stand on revising the premium wage plan formerly in effect.

Cornplanters Break 5th Place Competition Jinx

The Cornplanters Drum and Bugle Corps, Warren's own state champs, broke a 5th place jinx in field competition last Saturday night by placing in a field competition held in Kitting.

The Cornplanters were a crowd favorite from the time they stepped off the starting line until they left the field. Bursts of applause followed every portion of their fast-moving and refreshing drill. One corps official remarked, "If you were judged by applause meters in these things we would have placed much higher."

But the competent judging of members of the All-American Judging Association, although they commented with favorable criticisms and suggestions for improvement, placed the Cornplanters fourth.

The units finished in the following order: Tyrone Gardner Guards; Milton - Williamsport Keystoners; West Newton Yellow Jackets; Cornplanters; Latrobe Colonials.

NOAH'S ARK

A home is desired for a two year old female cocker spaniel, black, and described as affectionate, gentle with children, and completely housebroken. She may be had for the asking by calling RA 3-5885.

Next on the homes needed list is a calico kitten, seven weeks old, which may be seen at 11 Plum street. Additional information may be had by calling RA 3-6790.

ANNUAL SOAP BOX DERBY

Perfect summer weather, a long list of entries combined with the cooperation of a well-organized Junior Chamber of Commerce Committee assisted by numerous willing and capable volunteers furnished the background for another successful Soap Box Derby day for the Warren area, when young Bruce Matve, of Sugar Grove RD 2, was crowned 1959 champion.

As usual the exemplary competitive spirit displayed by the contestants was outstanding throughout an afternoon of thrilling races in new Alexander street Derby Downs. Again this year, as in the past three Derbies the list found a major number of entries from rural sections, many of whom had appeared in previous races.

As was to be expected the Awards Dinner at Beaty Cafeteria Saturday evening was one of the highlights of the Derby Schedule, which will be climaxed when all contestants will be guests of the Jaycees on a trip to see the Warren county winner compete in the National races at Derby Downs in Akron, O., August 16th.

The publishers and staff of the Times-Mirror again join in extending congratulations to the winner and sincere thanks to everyone who assisted in helping making the event a success, which naturally includes first and foremost Jaycee officials, committee and Auxiliary members, Dan Dodge, of Dan's Chevrolet and other volunteer workers including Mrs. Dana Harland, who again made a wonderful contribution through publicity promotion during the past several weeks. Others deserving special mention are Scott Himes, Derby chairman and his associates, which includes a large segment of the JC organization headed by President Chuck Thomas.

Special commendation is extended thorough employees for outstanding job of preparing the course; to the Warren Borough Police Department and members of the Civil Defense Unit for their fine work which was a factor in preventing serious accidents during the afternoon; to Dr. William Walters, who was in attendance and cared for minor emergencies which occurred; to the Bell Telephone Company for its communications; to the United Refinery for use of trucks and lubrications; to Betts Machine Co., for the first place trophy; National Forge for the second place trophy, Lesser Agency for the third place award, and N. K. Wendleboe for a $5.00 Gift Certificate.

And finally to Patrolman Charles Musante for his down-to-earth address delivered at the banquet, which made a tremendous hit with one and all.

All in all it was another gala occasion to mark the summer season for young folks and old!

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The public argument between Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Premier Nikita Khrushchev may have given diplomats a shock but it didn't amount to much except perhaps to help both men politically at home.

They agreed Sunday their fast set-to at the American fair in Moscow Friday was just frank and hardhitting but not belligerent. It was almost like calling the whole thing good, clean fun.

All they did was hit each other over the head with propaganda where it could get the most mileage—in front of reporters and TV—since all they said to each other had been said before by themselves or their governments.

It was pretty much an old story except for the way it was done. It didn't come any closer to settling anything—or making anything worse—between the United States and the Soviet Union than high school debate between an all-American boy and an all-Russian boy, each sticking up for his own country.

Both men knew any real hope they might have for settling American-Soviet differences rested in their private talks, of which they have had several.

To professional diplomats, used to washing dirty international linen out of sight and with polite slaver, the spectacle of these two high government officials stepping on each other's toes may have seemed clumsy.

But the United States and the Soviet Union both have been clumsy in the way they have handled Nixon's visit. Nixon's own government put him under a hand-cap and left him open to abuse before he ever got to Moscow.

There is small excuse — except on the ground of thoughtlessness — for the fact that Congress and the Eisenhower administration combined to declare last week's Captive Nations Week. This was a deliberate, anti-Communist slam, intended to remind the satellite peoples this country hadn't forgotten them.

What was forgotten was that last week was also the week Nixon was to arrive in the Soviet Union and that the Russians might—as they did—take out their irritation on Nixon.

But if this was clumsy, the Soviets looked ever more gawky. They were incredibly clumsy.

They provided the world with living evidence of Nixon's suggestion to Khrushchev that the Soviets are afraid of ideas. Khrushchev's rejoinder — "we are telling you not to be afraid of ideas"—looked ridiculous in view of events.

The Soviets insisted that more than 100 books — including the World Almanac — be taken off the shelves of the American book exhibit at Moscow.

On top of this the Soviets scrambled up the news coverage of Nixon's trip with censorship — a fact that was duly noted in the American press whose dispatches from its reporters in Moscow were delayed or chopped up.

But, while ideas unquestionably have more freedom in this country, there should be a slight pause before crowing.

It was only six years ago that — (Turn to Page Six)

Here and There

Now that the Warren County 1959 Soap Box Derby winner has been crowned it seems timely to review some of the things that are in store for the new champ when he goes to Akron next month. While in the Ohio City he will live at Derbytown, the local YMCA summer camp for boys on the shores of scenic Lake Y-Notak south of the city. The camp is the home and recreation center for all champions at the 22nd All American National Championships invited to Akron for the race visit the champions at Derbytown. From the time they arrive at Akron on Thursday August 16, there will be one big event after another for the boys. But there will be plenty of time for relaxation and fun, too. The All-American week begins for the champions when they arrive at Akron on Thursday. Behind a special escort, each boy is whisked away to All-American headquarters at the Sheraton-Mayflower Hotel where he mounts the Golden Stairs leading to the lobby. To the cheers of welcome, the champion is specially outfitted with a Derbytown uniform and taken to the camp where he will stay for the remainder of the week except to go to Derby Downs and to the Banquet Friday, will be test day for the champ. Along with other contestants, he will visit the famous Derby Downs race course for a final check-up of his car, last minute inspection routines and a chance to make a test run down the hill. Saturday is Fun Day for the champions. Celebrities will visit the camp and wish the boys luck. Industry and business executives will don aprons and caps to serve an outdoor bar-b-q meal. Championship wrist watches and racing diplomas will be awarded each boy, and each is given Lewis and sneakers to wear. And there will be moments for swimming, boating, horseback riding, and other sports. The 22nd All American will get under way at 2:00 p. m. Sunday August 16, with first heats being run according to official drawings made on Thursday. Prizes including $15,000 in college scholarships will be awarded at the gala Banquet of Champions which concludes the festive affair—the Soap Box Derby, world's greatest amateur racing event for boys.

Even Noah Webster might be bugged today if he ran across a trawler. And what could he possibly say to a hoopster? Americans seem to manufacture words like these for every gadget or social trend they produce. For the benefit of the man or woman who doesn't read dictionaries, The World Book Encyclopedia has compiled a list of some of the words and phrases that entered our language in 1958. "Trawler," for example, is an automobile design in which the transmission is in the rear instead of against the engine. "Hoopster" is a person, usually a child or his weight-worried mother, who uses a hula hoop. Economists have brought clarity and imagination to the mysterious workings of supply and demand with the phrase "bottoming out," which means reaching the lowest point in a recession. The hotel has graduated from motel to "boater"—that's a motel built over the water, where people can moor their boats during the night. If you have a heavy foot on the gas pedal, you obviously suffer from "roadomania." And if you wheel your groceries out to the car and forget to return the cart to the store, you're guilty of "cartnapping." Science has introduced the word "megacorpse," meaning a million dead persons, such as could result from nuclear warfare. An example of making a silk purse out of a sow's ear is "informational site." That's the area at the side of the road where a billboard extols "Mother Malone's Pickled Preserves" or welcomes you to town with "Warning: Speed Controlled by Radar." The height of simplicity is "pinch effect." That's the contraction that results from the magnetic interaction set up by a parallel flow of currents in plasma (highly ionized gas). ("bug-v.t., to annoy or confuse; coined by the "Beat Generation.")

Space Holds No Perils for NASA—Just Congress

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—National Aeronautics and Space Administration—NASA—is in trouble. Antimissile missiles are being fired at it from all sides and for different reasons.

Six Atlas missile failures in a row, plus two new Russian successes with recovery of animals in the nose cone have not inspired U.S. confidence of complacency.

Last year Congress criticized NASA because it wasn't spending money fast enough. This year the House of Representatives has cut the current NASA budget by 68 million dollars, or 13 per cent of an authorized $330 million.

One criticism is that the American space program is being pushed too fast, resulting in failures. Another criticism is that the program is not being pushed fast enough.

From a Senate subcommittee on space under Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) comes a report saying that "planning and programming for research and development should be accelerated."

Dr. HERBERT F. YORK, director of research and engineering at Department of Defense, says that in the frantic desire to catch up with the Russians, too many gambles are being taken in the U.S. missile and space programs. Components are used before they are fully tested. In efforts to save a month or two, engineering problems are not thought through.

Dr. York's point is best illustrated by examples of more familiar conventional aircraft development. The B-17 Flying Fortress—biggest bomber of its time—was developed over a six-year period before the war.

The bigger B-29 Superfort, however, was a wartime crash program in which manpower, overtime and other expense were not spared. It was an ultimate success, but it had many setbacks.

Even today's 707 jet passenger plane has developed landing gear troubles after careful development and testing.

ON A RATIONAL BASIS, perhaps there would be no effort to make the Atlas missile operational before 1962. All its components would be perfected separately before assembly for final tests of the ultimate weapon.

Because this program was not followed, there have been some catastrophes. The failures do not mean that the Atlas should be scrapped yet. For development of the more sophisticated Titan is a year and a half behind it.

Dr. T. Keith Glennan, NASA administrator, admits, however, that he has some failures which have cost money. Juno II and Thor-Able boosters have proved to be so uneconomical that no future reliance will be placed in them.

Development of new boosters has been initiated. Within two years the space agency hopes it will be able to launch larger payloads more efficiently and cheaply.

BUT THIS WHOLE PROGRAM is threatened now by House cuts in the NASA budget. Among the projects which Administrator Glennan says he would have to delay are these:

Vega rocket—capable of placing 5,000 pounds in earth orbit to make television surveys of the moon.

Centaur space vehicle—capable of soft-landing a 720-pound payload on the moon.

Project Mercury—the top priority American effort to put a man in space ahead of the Russians.

Million-and-a-half-pound thrust engine—This is a forerunner of the six-million-pound thrust engines needed for manned flight to the moon and back. This is a six-year program which might be delayed a year or more by the cut.

Project Rover—nuclear propulsion for space travel.

Radio and TV

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Richard Long, who has had more than his share of bad breaks, is getting a good one—as star of one of TV's promising shows for the fall.

Dick started as a kid actor, then had his career disrupted by military service. His first marriage to Susan Ball ended with her death by cancer. His second marriage to Mara Corday has had its stormy seasons, though it appears calm at present.

His career never seemed to spark, possibly because he is handsome, clean-cut, well-groomed and not the least neurotic. Doesn't even wear blue jeans.

"When I was under contract to Universal-International, I couldn't seem to get any kind of role but the boy next door or Madison Avenue types," he recalled.

But he made a good impression as a suave gambler on the Mervyn LeRoy series. This led to his selection as lead in the new Warner whodunit, "Bourbon Street Beat." He and Andrew Duggan play partners in a New Orleans detective agency.

"But it's a different kind of detective series because of the locale," Dick pointed out. "We don't have to find a dead body in each chapter. There are all kinds of possibilities in the territory, even finding buried treasure."

"Bourbon Street Beat" will be the center of ABC's powerhouse trio aimed at dominance of Monday nights. It will be preceded by a Western, "Cheyenne" and followed by the South Seas searies "Adventures in Paradise."

How to Keep Well

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen
(© 1958: By The Chicago Tribune)

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

SUN AND WATER HAZARDS

Summer is the water sport season in a northern city, such as Chicago, the 20 miles of shoreline are crowded with swimmers, bathers, and sun worshipers. There are thousands of boats in the water, varying from graceful sailboats to noisy, bumpy outboard boats. It is surprising that so few people get hurt or drown.

The physician sees the casualties that never make the headlines. The ears, nose, and eyes are likely to take a beating from diving or swimming under the surface. Water seldom gets into the sinuses or the internal ear, but when it does, infection is likely to occur. Those with sinus or ear disorders should keep the head out of water and avoid diving.

Irritation of the eyes usually is confined to the lids and occurs more often after spending long hours in the water or swimming in pools containing too much acid or chlorine. Ringworm thrives on moisture — sitting dripping wet on the edge of the pool, a wet deck, or on the beach is an ideal way to encourage athlete's foot or fungal infection of the outer ear canal.

The hot sun not only burns but may cause heat stroke or prostration. The old ticker may suffer. A report appeared in the Rhode Island medical journal on two otherwise healthy young men who developed heat attacks after prolonged exposure to the sun. In both instances the attack took place without physical exertion.

Victims of mild or moderate sunburn usually suffer in silence or rely upon soothing ointments containing petrolatum and an antihistamine or a corticosteroid. Those with more severe burns are a sorry sight, especially when extensive areas of skin are blistered. Pain is intense and hospitalization may be advised should the person develop chills, fever, nausea, and vomiting.

Dr. Van Dellen will send a leaflet on athlete's foot if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

SHOT BUMPS

T. Z. writes: Every time I give myself a shot of insulin I get a bump at the site of the injection. Is there any way this could be prevented?

Reply

These nodules are most likely to occur with the protein-containing, modified insulin. Change to another form of insulin. These bumps last for variable lengths of time and often disappear as the use of insulin continues. I assume you are not referring to hives, an allergic manifestation. Occasionally swelling stems from injecting the insulin too close to the skin. In such instances, massaging the area after the shot will hasten absorption.

ADHESIONS AND STERILITY

Mrs. D. writes: Can a woman become sterile due to many adhesions following an appendectomy?

Reply

Theoretically, yes, but it is doubtful whether this type of adhesion would kink or block both tubes. The commoner causes of sterility ought to be considered before an exploratory operation is done.

SMALLPOX IMMUNITY

G. D. W. writes: I had smallpox in 1881. Do you think I'm immune?

Reply

Yes. There is one way to be sure: Be vaccinated and if an immune reaction occurs, your immunity has lasted these 78 years.

IN THE DEPTHS

G. F. writes: Is mental depression a part of schizophrenia?

Reply

Yes, but not everyone who is depressed is a schizophrenic.

Viewing Harrisburg

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP) — A new complication is entering the commonwealth's tax dilemma. It's the steel strike.

The State Revenue Department is worried that a prolonged steel shutdown will sharply reduce the state tax yield. Secretary Charles M. Dougherty is trying to work up rough figures for the Legislature.

Unofficial estimates are that the state involved runs hundreds of thousands of dollars a day.

"This still strike is hanging over our head like a sword of Damocles," says Rep. Albert W. Johnson, Republican floor leader. "It's a phantom ghost sitting at the side of each assemblyman when he is being asked to vote for additional taxes. We can't overlook it."

The 3½ per cent sales tax is now estimated to yield 617 million dollars in the two-year fiscal period that started last June 1. The 6 per cent corporate net income tax estimate for the same span is 315 millions.

There's no question that corporate profits in the steel industry are going to be reduced by the strike. The longer it lasts, the less profits. The less profits, the less taxes.

And the steelworkers themselves are tightening their belts. They're buying only essentials — food clothing. Luxury and semi-luxury items are out. That means less sales for retailers. Less sales, less taxes.

Johnson says he is afraid that an extended steel walkout could conceivably reduce tax revenues to the point that a new tax program may have to be developed to fill the gap.

And, to the Republican floor leader, the altered tax picture reduces the necessity for a brand-new proposal that reached the Legislature in the past week.

The unique bill, first of its kind in commonwealth history, would require that any surplus beyond five million dollars at the end of the 1959-61 biennium be earmarked to reduce the state's debt.

It was submitted in the House with bipartisan backing and the personal support of Gov. Lawrence.

The legislation is designed to allay suspicions that Lawrence may end up the biennium with a whopping surplus and use that money to reduce taxes in 1961 to the political advantage of the Democrats.

Actually, there seems little likelihood that this will be possible. That's because Senate Republicans plan to put on a temporary basis any further taxes enacted in the current session. They would be re-enacted two years from now.

Introduction of the bill brought snickers from some rank-and-file lawmakers. Why? Pennsylvania hasn't had a surplus since the end of World War II.

MRS. CHARLES RAYMOND TUCK

Vases of mums and gladioli, with ferns and candelabra, decorated the altar of St. Walburga's church in Titusville July 18, when Constance Jeanne Valone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Valone, formerly of Warren and now residing in Pleasantville, became the bride of Charles Raymond Tuck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tuck, Titusville RD. 2.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 2:00 p. m. by the Rev. Walter H. Lohse, with traditional wedding music played at the organ.

The bride, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Gheres of Pleasant township, was given in marriage by her father. Her floor-length gown of white chiffon tulle was styled with mottled bodice, pearl-embroidered lace outlining the sabrina neckline and lace forming brief sleeves. The bouffant skirt had an over-lay of lace-edged tulle and hemline of tulle ruffles.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a crown-hat of lace edged in pearls and sequins, and her pearl necklace and earrings were the bride-groom's gift. Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of white carnations and pink sweetheart roses, with carnations knotted in streamers.

Wearing powder blue nylon net over taffeta, with matching white lace shell-hats and gloves, Mrs. Beverly Moore, Warren, was matron of honor; Mrs. Joan Mangell and Sonja Jayne Confer, bridesmaids. As flower girl, Patty MacQuarrie of Titusville wore white dotted swiss and a white hat. Her basket of pink and white carnations matched colonial bouquets carried by the others.

Keith McIntyre was best man; ushering were James Mangell and the bride's brother, John Valone.

Wearing white accessories and pink carnations, Mrs. Valone chose a taffeta sheath with blue-nylon tulle, and Mrs. Tuck selected aqua lace.

A reception for 150 guests was held at Forest Hills, with guests from Mansfield, O.; Warren, Erie, Clarendon, Titusville and Pleasantville.

After a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will live in East Titusville. Employed by Sylvania Electric Products, the bride is a graduate of Pleasantville High School and the bridegroom of Titusville High.

Parties were given for the bride by Nancy and Beverly Gheres, Warren; Mrs. Clarence Reynolds and Mrs. Clarence Tuck. The rehearsal party was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Youngsville EUB Holds Reception For Pastor-Wife

YOUNGVILLE — About 85 guests were present for the reception-dinner given in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. F. Eugene Donelson, welcoming them back for another year of service to the Youngsville Evangelical United Brethren church.

The affair was held Thursday evening in the church parlors, where tables were beautifully decorated in summer flowers and an entertaining program followed the serving.

Plumer Mourer led in prayer, Gilbert Sanford gave the invocation. Mrs. Gladys Meelen proved an able toastmaster, introducing James Thompson, who extended a welcome for the Sunday school, and Kathleen Cowan for Youth Fellowship.

A vocal selection, "The Little Brown Church on the Hill", was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Abraham, followed by a skit, "The Donaldsons", given by a Youth Fellowship group.

Harold Thompson warmly welcomed the pastor and wife in behalf of church members and presented him a purse of money in token of the parish's esteem. Rev. Donaldson responded with hearty thanks and expressed his pleasure in being returned. The benediction was in the form of a singing, "Friendship Circle, 'Blest Be the Tie That Binds'".

Treva McKinney was in charge of the program; dining room chairman was Mrs. Marion Jackson, with the Ladies' Aid taking over the kitchen.

DR. AND MRS. LEOPOLDO GONZALEZ

Mr. and Mrs. James Dolphin, Irvine, announce the marriage of their daughter, Judith, Rae, to Dr. Leopoldo Gonzalez, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Gonzalez of Barranquilla, Colombia, S. C.

The recent ceremony took place in St. John's church, Buffalo, N. Y., and was performed by the Rev. Robert P. Conklin.

For her wedding, the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of imported swiss organdy, fashioned with sabrina neckline and small cap sleeves. Pearls edged the Juliet cap which held her circular veil. She carried white carnations centered with a white orchid, also her grandmother's Swiss lace handkerchief.

Mary Lumetto, the bride's only attendant, wore a ballerina gown of white lace and taffeta, the lace bodice having a scoop neckline and short sleeves. With it, she wore a matching headpiece and carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of pink and white gladioli with ivy.

Edward Fuenmayor, consul of Colombia in Toronto, was best man for the bridegroom.

The dinner and reception took place at Leonardo's Restaurant, where decorations were carried out in pink and white.

After a honeymoon trip to New York City, the couple will live in Bogota, Colombia.

Mrs. Gonzalez is a graduate of Youngsville High School and attended Buffalo General Hospital School of Nursing. Dr. Gonzalez has been a radiologist at Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo.

Gathered From The Party Line

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Peterson, Hertzel street, have returned from Missoula, Mont., where they enjoyed a vacation with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Hayden.

Important Bills Awaiting Action Before Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bills Congress will pass before adjournment will do all that a majority of its members and the President will agree can be done now, says Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Hinting strongly at a willingness to compromise, the Senate Democratic leader said he must see that the Democratic-controlled Senate avoids a legislative deadlock with the Republican Administration.

Congress must do something, Johnson added in a week radio-TV interview, even if "we won't do everything that I would like to do."

Johnson expressed his views during a radio-TV program with Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass) recorded for Massachusetts and Texas stations.

What does Johnson think about these important issues still before Congress?

Labor regulation: He predicted passage of a good bill.

Housing: He said he expects Democrats to find some area of agreement with President Eisenhower. He made no mention of a possible attempt to override Eisenhower's housing bill veto.

Civil rights: He said he hopes Congress will pass a civil rights measure this session, adding "I think it's very important that we have understanding and we have tolerance, but that we make progress."

Wheat and tobacco: The Senate will not hesitate to take another look at wheat and tobacco control legislation, he said, if Democrats can find common ground with the Republicans on measures to replace the vetoed wheat and tobacco bills.

Dems Closing Wide Voter Gap with GOP

Considerable interest has developed over the Democratic upsurge in new voter registration since May 25.

Shortly after registration books were re-opened following primary election in May, Republicans held a 6,184-registrant edge over Democrats.

But since that time on May 28, Democrats have cut and whittled to bring down the GOP lead 107 voters, to a 5,977 voter lead.

In registering in Warren County Court House last week, Democrats gained 12 voters from last week and the Republicans added five new voters. Their totals to date are 134 and 35 new voters, respectively. Total party registration for Republican is 11,980 and 6,013 for Democrats.

Prohibitionist, Socialist and Non-Partisan registration remained unchanged this week.

the State Department — under the prodding of Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) — went in for some book-burning among volumes on the shelves of this government's overseas libraries.

Nixon's ordeal in Latin America last year — when, because of anti-American feeling, he had to endure spit and stones — did him political good. It created great sympathy for him an appreciation for sturdiness in an ordeal.

Now his slug-fest with Khrushchev should do him political good here. Many Americans, fed up with Khrushchev's bluster, can easily identify themselves with him and tell themselves: "He told off that guy."

And Khrushchev could hardly lose at home by battering on Nixon. Any Russians, more concerned about their own feeling of inferiority toward the United States than the actual content of the argument, will no doubt applaud their premier for standing up to the American.

Successful Garden Club Workshop

Pictured in a Timesphoto by Shattuck are Mrs. Robert Probst, Mrs. Emily Stuebing of Pittsburgh, and Mrs. Charles Tranter, as the co-chairmen welcomed their guest to the Friday Garden Club Workshop in the YWCA.

Highlight of the summer season in Warren was the first annual Garden Club Workshop held in the YWCA activities building from 10:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m., with a delicious luncheon included in the day's schedule.

According to the general chairman, Mrs. Charles Tranter, and co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Probst, the entire event was a huge success, and guest instructor, Mrs. Emily Stuebing from Pittsburgh, was a charming, inspiring and enthusiastic speaker.

Mrs. Stuebing opened the session with a general lecture period in which she stressed the importance of design, color, proportion, scale and modern trends in arranging today's delightful bouquets, and emphasized the frequent use of figurines in prize-winning arrangements as well as those planned carefully for home decor.

Mrs. Stuebing pointed up that technique in flower arranging is the secret to pieces of distinction, and while she talked, did some actual arrangements for the group to view. Those bringing flowers and containers participated in the workshop, with able assists from the talented Mrs. Stuebing who gave critics on the work and pointed out flaws, and showed where arrangements could be improved.

The committee in charge of the clinic is grateful to Skip McIney, manager of Gilton's Flower and Gift Shop, for service rendered in supplying greens and cut flowers, as well as containers to aid the class. With the greens Mrs. Stuebing was able to show an actual piece done without flowers using only the usual fill-in material.

Damages of $750 in Weekend Car Wrecks

Ramming of another in the rear caused two accidents over the weekend, investigated by Pennsylvania State Police. No injuries were sustained.

Sunday at 7 p. m. at the intersection of Rtes. 69 and 27 between Sugar Grove and Chanders Valley, a car driven by Nolan Drake, 39, of Falconer, ran into the back of a slower auto.

Driver of the hit car was Sherwood Bedient, 43, of Jamestown. Damages were estimated at $350.

Friday evening at 11:35, two cars were involved in a similar mishap at Irvine at Rtes. 6 and 62 intersection.

Joseph Pratz, 26, of 228 Pennsylvania ave. west, was hit from behind by an auto operated by Paul McMahon, 33, of Bradford.

Pratz had stopped for a stop sign when struck. Damages were given at $400.

Bandit Breaks Way Into Oakview Bar

Forced entry through a rear door netted a burglar $500 in cash from Oakview Tavern early Sunday morning.

The robbery happened sometime between 1 and 4 a. m. yesterday.

Cash was taken from a cupboard and a wall case.

There was no damage, except to the back door which was pryed open.

Mrs. Catherine VanTassel, owner of Oakview, told State Police that she left the tavern around 1 a. m. and returned at 4:00, discovering the robbery.

Braves Make It Four Straight Over Pittsburgh

By DAVE O'HARA
Associated Press Sports Writer
MILWAUKEE (AP) — "Beautiful beautiful," cried catcher Del Crandall happily. And that's the perfect description for the pitching of the Milwaukee Braves in four straight victories over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Braves, rebounding from eight losses in nine outings following the All-Star break, mastered the Pirates 4-0 and 2-1 Sunday behind southpaw Warren Spahn and the combined talents of right-handers Bob Buhl and Don McMahon.

Spahn surrendered only five hits in posting his fourth shutout of the season and No. 47 of a brilliant career in the opener. Buhl scattered five hits in seven innings before letting McMahon finish up in the nightcap.

Only a throwing error by first baseman Joe Adcock permitted the Pirates to score their first run off Milwaukee pitching in five games. Southpaw Juan Pizarro blanked Pittsburgh July 3 and last Friday and Lew Burdette added another whitewashing, Saturday.

"You can't beat pitching like that," said Braves Manager Fred Haney. "We're not hitting the way we should, but the pitchers are carrying us."

Warren Archer To De... High Score Honor at Fryburg

Warren area archers have been extended an invitation to participate in fourth annual Fryburg Champion Club shoot on Sunday, Aug. 2.

Fryburg club course is located one mile off Rte. 357 at Venus, which is located midway between Oil City and Cooks Forest on Rte. 157.

Sunday's champion club shoot will be a regulation 28 field round. Archers not only shoot individually, but have the added pleasure of shooting for their club.

Registration will be held from 10 a. m. to 2 p. m., one dollar per person. Shooting will start as soon as groups of four are formed.

Committee said that shooting must be instinctive, as defined by NFPA, so that all clubs have an equal chance.

Winner of the shoot will be awarded a trophy which stands over two and a half feet high. Individual trophies, and not medals the committee reminds, will be awarded on this basis: four shooters, one trophy; five shooters, two trophies; six or more shooters, three trophies.

Individual with highest score will be presented the "Bob Jackson" trophy, named in honor of last year's winner, who is a member of Warren Archery Club. This year's lucky shooter will have the 1960 trophy presented with his name. Jackson shot a 409 last year.

Additional information may be had from W. S. Wagner, Shoot Chairman, 849 1/2 Grandview Rd., Oil City; Phone 8-3651.

Husky Air Force Major Winner of Publincs Tourney

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania's new publincs golf champion is a husky Air Force major who said he won the title after he "quit being scared."

That's what Maj. Waino Thompson told well-wishers Saturday after he clinched the 24th tournament by shooting an unusual under-par 69 on the tricky, 6,065-yard Hershey Park course.

Thompson's 72-hole total in the three-day tourney was a six over par 290. It was his first appearance in the Publincs event. The new champion is slated for a transfer next month to Walker Air Force Base, Roswell, N. M.

The 6-foot, 2-inch, 200-pounder shot a one-under-par 70 in the opening round, a 76 in the second round and a 75 in the third.

Thompson said he decided to "quit being scared" when he reached the finals. "I said to heck with it—I'm going to hit 'em."

Kinzua Rolls Toward Another Assn. Pennant

Chautauqua County Baseball Association flag is going to Kinzua for the second straight year.

Warren County entry in the Chautauqua loop blasted Kennedy pitchers for a 19-2 victory to record their 11th win against only one defeat. Two games remain to be played, and second-place Onoville is three games behind.

On the mound for Kinzua was Ray Peterson.

In the other league action yesterday, it was Green Brothers over Sugar Grove 8 to 12; Chautauqua downing Bust 14-7; and Cherry Creek falling before Onoville 5-2.

Double Win Over Bucs Puts Braves Back Into Running

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
No Milwaukee burler is hanging Fred Haney in effigy today. Nobody is whispering that Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette are over the hill. The Braves are up and at 'em again with a four-game winning streak.

Trailing the league-leading San Francisco Giants by only two games after a sweep of Sunday's doubleheader with Pittsburgh, Milwaukee seems to have snapped out of its mid-summer slump.

Spahn's emphatic five-hitter in the 4-0 opener was the Braves' third straight shutout.

One unearned run in the fourth inning of the second game finally snapped a string of 30 2-3 scoreless innings for Pittsburgh but it didn't help much. They still lost 2-1 to Bob Buhl, making his first start since June 19 after a first start since June.

Spahn's 13th victory, the 259th of his long career, was impressive. Buhl tired after seven innings and Don McMahon finished up with two hitless innings.

The Milwaukee attack still sputtered and stalled. They had only six hits in the opener while handing Bob Friend his 13th defeat. One was Johnny Logan's 12th homer. They had only five hits in the second but one was Joe Adcock's 11th homer.

Bob Anderson pulled San Francisco back a little closer to the pack as he pitched the Chicago Cubs into fourth place with a 7-3 victory. The Giants' defeat and Los Angeles' 8-2 decision over St. Louis sliced San Francisco's lead to 1 1/2 games.

Cincinnati snapped Philadelphia's five-game winning streak in the first game 4-2 but Gene Conley got the Phils an even break with a 6-3 triumph in the second game when Richie Ashburn led a 14-hit Phil attack.

Two Newcomers Help Boost Indians on Top of the Heap

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
Six months ago Jim Perry and Bobby Locke were as widely unknown as Jim Baxes. To suggest that these young men would be largely responsible for boosting Cleveland into the American League lead would have been courting a trip to the booby hatch.

Perry was a good prospect who just had finished a first season in Class A at Reading, Pa. Locke was in the Army or just getting out. Baxes, packing a little age, was just another infielder in the Los Angeles Dodgers organization.

Because Perry shut out Washington with two hits 9-0 and Baxes singled home the winning run in the 12th inning for a 4-3 victory in the second game on Sunday, the Indians are back on top in the American League. Locke pitched 11 of the 12 innings before giving way to a pinch hitter and Mudcat Grant, a 1958 rookie, picked up the decision.

Perry has all the earmarks of a real find for the Indians. Although his two-hitter was only his second start, it was his sixth victory. The fireballer from Jamestown, N.C. has been brilliant on relief. A pair of home runs by Woodie Held, who had four hits, eased his way.

Locke's effort was outstanding for a 25-year-old right-hander who was sent back to the minors from the Tucson, Ariz. spring training camp. He gave up only six hits in 11 innings.

Baxes, a 30-year-old "rookie," broke up that 12th inning game with a single off Pete Ramos after Minnie Minoos doubled.

Baltimore dropped Chicago a half game behind Cleveland by winning the second game 4-0 on a combination of Milt Pappas' five-hit pitching and the lifting of Gene Woodling. The veteran outfielder had a three-run homer and drove in another run with a single. Chicago won the opener on Early Wynn's two-hitter, 4-1, and Al Smith's three-run inside-the-park home run.

Rockets Left Dangling From 13-5 Art Metal Verdict in Inter-City

A falling Warren Rocket combine recruited players from the grandstand Saturday for their game with Inter-City foe Jamestown Art Metal.

Rockets lost to Jamestown on State Hospital diamond, 13-5.

Local team officials found it necessary to call for substitute players to fill vacancies left by regular squad members. When game time appeared, enough of the regular squad wasn't on hand to form a solid team.

Art Metal cracked three Warren twirlers for 21 hits, the Rockets chipping seven hits off four Jamestown moundsmen. Eight local batters fell by the strikeout route, Rocket twirler Castagnino fanning one New Yorker.

Jamestown started adding their decisive victory early in the game, scoring three runs in each of first two innings. Warren notched their first run top of fourth. Rockets followed suit in their half and added another bottom of fifth to lead 8-1.

A singleton was posted top of sixth for Rockets, Art Metal chalking up another in following half. One Warren run in seventh was proceeded by three Jamestown tallies. Campbell homered for Rockets in eighth with one man on to drive in two runs for Warren, ending the local's scoring.

BUFFALO RACEWAY

Harness racing season at Buffalo Raceway will come to a temporary halt next Saturday, resuming for a fall meeting Sept. 14.

Three $1,200 Class B events will receive feature attention on tonight's card at Hamburg. Trotters of that class are scheduled to go postward in sixth race in which Kimberly Way is morning line favorite.

Two divisions of Class B pacers, each with 7 starters, will fill seventh and eighth races. Kala Pence (Gilmour) is opening choice in seventh race against 6 other contestants.

Byno's Lady is early favorite in eighth race.

Lester "Lefty" Cole, Erie, achieved golfing immortality by making a hole-in-one on the Kane Country Club course last Wednesday afternoon. "Lefty" made the ace on the 145-yard ninth hole using a three iron off the tee. He is a resident of Erie and a member of the Lake Shore Country Club there. A frequent business visitor at Kane he was playing with a group that included John Cochran, Jamestown, N.Y., Edward Smith and Tom Weisenbaugh, Erie, and Tom York, of Portsmouth, Va. Kane golfers with an ace to their credit included H. A. "Bert" Dorsh, Erie; Wilkinson, Larson's, hole-in-one was made on the 278-yard fourth hole several years ago. All others have been made on the ninth.

Moon Brook Hosts Jenny Open Mon.

Professional and amateur linksmen from Warren, remainder of Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York and Canada, will visit Monday in Jamestown for the $2,000 "Jenny" Open Golf Tourney at Moon Brook.

Pros will be shooting for the $500 top prize and amateurs will divide merchandise gifts for both low gross and low net.

Special bonus prizes included $100 for each hole-in-one and $500 to anyone breaking the course record.

Club pro Toby Lyons anticipates a big turnout for this meeting and recommends that any area golfers who play to compete, forward their $10 entry fee and registration to him immediately.

Knights Do An About-Face When Merchants Appear With Shutout

Merchants from 400 Block rang up "No Sale" against their western neighbors, Betts Machine Shop, Saturday afternoon. The City Softball League 6-0 shutout over Betts came on West Side diamond after the Traders played "tremendous ball" with Booney Sturdevant pitching four-hit ball, Syd Cummings and Rico Bonavita getting two hits apiece.

The shutout was Booney's second in his last three games. Defeat of Betts, as a whitewashing, was the first of this season, including tournament and independent play, with some of the finest pitching in the tri-state area going against Black Knights.

Bowing of the darkmen, snapped their 11-game win streak in City action.

After posting two runs in each of first two innings, 400 Block sellers could have quit there, but added another in fifth, followed by Ray Kane's home run blast to left center in the seventh.

Kane was 2-for-3. Elmer Haight 2-for-4 for Merchants. Syd Cummings and Rico Bonavita were 2-for-3.

Wild Bullets Fly Around Ball Park At Havana, Cuba

HAVANA (AP) — The Havana Sugar Kings and the Rochester Red Wings are far from this trigger-happy city today, and the Red Wings, at least, couldn't be happier for there are no bullets flying around the ball parks.

The Cubans are in Montreal and the Wings at home for the opening series Thursday night against the Royals and Richmond Virginians, respectively. In fact the Wings have been home since Sunday. They couldn't get out of this celebrating town fast enough following the hitting of two players by stray bullets and the calling of Saturday night's game after 11 innings with the score tied 4-4.

Sunday's doubleheader was cancelled by approval of league president Frank Shaughnessy after he heard from the umpires a telephone report of Saturday night's incidents.

Schnars Enters Wall Fires 69, Palmer 68 In Moon Brook Exhibition In Stateline Event

"Cannonball" Bob Schnars of Rusti pushed his 1956 Chevy across the finish line first in feature event at Stateline Speedway Saturday night.

It was Schnars' second win of the season. Cannonball pulled ahead of the pack in 17th lap. Bud Fanale of Jamestown, who had been in first spot up to this point, relinquished his lead to Schnars when his car became overheated and burned up.

Second day of the feature began a series of mishaps as Marv Thorpe's 1956 Ford spun completely around on the fourth turn. Phil Jackson's '56 Ford went into the fence between three and four.

In next lap, Leon Lindstrom's 1957 Ford tangled on the second turn with Sammy LeMancuso. The race was stopped until LeMancuso's machine was removed. It had the turn completely blocked.

After the green flag once again was dropped, Jim Scott, Jim Patrick and Bill Layfield's cars came together in 10th lap. The event was re-started once again. Schnars restarted in third position. By the end of first lap he was in second and with in next five laps, was running first.

Squirt Johns of Brockway was unable to enter the race because of mechanical difficulties.

Usual card of late model racing is scheduled for next Saturday night. Sunday, starting at 2 p.m. the All-Star Motorcycle Championship Race will be run. Also on Stateline's up-coming calendar is the Mid-Season Championship Jockey Race for Thursday, Aug. 6. Stateline officials expect between 70 and 100 car-ful for this race.

Punsky, Lacy In Playground Win

Stewart, Punsky pitched a no-hitter for Lacy in playground competition last week, in downing Memorial 8-1 on Lacy field.

Clark was top batter for Lacy with a home run. Madigan doubled. Larson was 2-for-3 for the winners.

Punsky gave up the lone run to Memorial with four bases on balls top of seventh. The Lacy twirler gave Thompson the first walk, then issued three more to push Thompson in for the run.

Wall Fires 69, Palmer 68 In Moon Brook Exhibition

Several Warren golfing fans saw U. S. top name pros play an 18-hole best ball exhibition at Moon Brook Country Club Sunday.

Masters champion Art Wall and last year's Masters champ, Arnold Palmer, engaged in the exhibition with Moon Brook pro Toby Lyons and Ben Bishop, eight-time club champ.

Palmer, Wall and Bishop bettered par. Lyons, who has surpassed the club's standard figures so many times he has lost count, was only two over.

Palmer carded 35-33—68 in making the tour of the par 71 course; Wall posted 36-33—69; Bishop filed 38-35—73; and Lyons shot a 38-35—73.

Jamestown Sun sports writer reported that Palmer displayed his power in attaining distance and Wall's finesse, and overall ability, Bishop's tenacity and talent for coming through despite more scrambling than is his wont. Lyons made a grand comeback 33 on the incoming nine after an outgoing 38 that was little less than amazing to those players and fans acquainted with his game.

One veteran of the estimated 1,500 crowd who has seen the last couple of decades, said "If one man could attain Palmer's distance and Wall's general all-around class, he would be the greatest golfer in the world today."

Bruce

line, with brother Bruce out in front. Of particular interest is the size of these twin brothers... both 12 years old, but Bruce standing head and shoulders taller than Wayne, and being a brown-eyed, dark complexioned lad, with Wayne a tow-head with blue eyes. According to Mrs. Matve, Bruce is the older of the boys by a bare five minutes.

In a cool, calm, workman-like attitude, the "winnah" Bruce Matve accepted his triumph after having made one previous attempt at the crown, when he was nosed out by last year's champ, Mighty Manford Rydholm. With this victory goes the privilege of competing in the 22nd All-American Derby to be held in Akron, Ohio, Sunday August 16, and the singular honor of being Warren County's first Class B entrant to emerge champ. The Texas Lunch emblem will be scratched off Matve's car, and he will race under the sterling banner of the Warren Times-Mirror when he competes at Derby Downs in Akron.

The event ran smoothly despite a few mishaps when several racers were damaged enough to keep them from further competition in the race, and one had received a slight lip injury when his car rammed the curb on Alexander street and tipped his face forward colliding with his steering apparatus. This minor accident, according to Dr. William Walters, medical director, was the first in the history of the local Derby classic.

As always, the industrious crew of Jaycees coordinated heats expertly with telephone communication from the judges stand at the finish line to the starting ramps at Topside, while Playground Supervisor Fred Bell handled the flags at the finish line, waving the red for trouble, the green for all clear on the track, and the white checkered for victory.

For Allen Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Keller, of Mankie Bush, the day was not a total loss, for his well-constructed powder blue car sponsored by Mason's Grocery won for him the Class A champion title, and runner-up in the fourth annual Soap Box Derby. He was presented a beautiful wrist watch for his outstanding achievement, and impressive second place trophy presented by National Forge, plus a gift certificate in the amount of $5.00 from N. K. Wendelboe's which will purchase for him anything he chooses in that store. Allen, who raced Borton and Swanson in the semi-finals in a competition, gained the crown in 24.2 seconds over Swanson in the last heat. Keller figured prominently in last year's Derby too, as he was nosed out by Champion Rydholm in 23.8 seconds just before the semi-finals. Allen displayed the true spirit of good sportsmanship and took his loss on the chin with a big hand clasp and best wishes for the champ, Bruce Matve.

The Derby was highlighted this year by two pre-race setting oil can races featuring two of Warren's bright young personalities. In the first round, for the Oil Can Trophy was Leroy Schneck, WNAE program director, wearing dusty pink Bermuda shorts and safari helmet who plunked all of his massive anatomy into last year's winning car, a fire engine red model of Manford Rydholm, only to bow out gracefully to local Rambler dealer Emory Mahan who was able to pit his stock car skill against Schneck as he sped across the finish line in Frank Burgett's maroon crate, the second annual Derby champ's car.

Next came the pace-setter between Derby Director Scott Himes again using Burgett's car, with Rydholm looking as triumphant as he did the day he took the crown, smiling as he showed himself to be a really great champ, by nosing out Himes many car lengths across the finish line. For Scott, the race proved one thing, an opportunity to get a birdseye view of the scene behind the steering gear and the long race way ahead. Thank goodness for those tales of hay! Scott wasn't quite so green facially, as the flag Fred Bell was waving for the go-ahead, but he looked a bit more disinterested than his opponent. Needless to say, Manford looked forward to this pace-setter with Himes, for as he put it, "This will be my last time to race in my car." It was a glorious moment for him to relive once more.

In the brief parade, chair-manned by Hugh Higgins, celebration Queen Jean Powley appeared in her breath-taking nylon dress and rhinestone tiara, to adorn the brand new cream colored convertible loaned by Dan Dodge of Dan's Chevrolet, co-sponsor, to drive the official judges to Topside. Riding with Jean were Chief of Police Mike Egan; Sparky Saylor of Times-Mirror; 1958 Champ, Rydholm; and Honorary Judge Ed C. Lowrey. Then came the impressive march of the registrants matter of FACT

In 1955, the Panama Railroad became the first transcontinental railroad in America. Forty-eight miles in length, it transported passengers from the Atlantic side of the Isthmus to the Pacific in about four hours. It was built primarily to speed the trip to the California gold fields. It is said that the ticket agents could accept nothing but gold.

being introduced at mikeside as they paraded up the course, to rousing cheers from the well-wishers.

With the elimination of bleacher seats again this year, spectators brought with them camp stools, sat on the lawns, and porches for a better view of the activity, and modern Pepsi Cola and Coca Cola stands provided thirsty on-lookers with cooling refreshment.

Bales of hay had been placed along the foot of Alexander street about 100 yards away from Conewango avenue below the finish line in case any Soap Box Derby racer's brakes failed to negotiate, however none did, thanks to the rigid safety measures enforced by Jaycee Inspections chairman, Elmer Melander.

Leroy Schneck, local radio personality, manned the mike announcing the contestants, heats and times each boy travelled, the lames and winners. Helping out in the calling of the close ones was Jaycee Ron Platt, who was on hand with a 60 second Polaroid Land Camera. He was called in frequently as he and neck finishes called for re-matches where even the camera's eye could not catch the difference as they sped across the finish line in a dead heat.

Trucks at the top of the course carried winners of various heats back to the crest for the elimination runs.

Derby Day again saw two classes of keen competition, those boys 11 and 12 years old, in Class B, respectively, and the 13 to 15 year olds inclusive in the Class A contest. An innovation this year, found the addition of Class C, the losers' category, to give first round outs a chance at the title again, and consolation awards, which seemed to go over big with entrants and parents alike, who felt that after those long months of building, boys were distressed who got only one whack at the course.

Winners in each class were Schumann in Class C; Matve in Class B; Keller in Class A; with Matve the winner and 1959 CHAMPION.

With the marvelous support of the Times-Mirror and Dan's Chevrolet, the Jaycees were once more able to bring to the area, the fourth annual running of the Soap Box Derby, considered the world's greatest, amateur racing event for boys.

Playground News Beat

Highlights of this week's scheduled playground program is Junior Olympic Track and Field meet on Beatty Field Wednesday at 2 p. m. In years past, this has proven to be one of the most popular events in summer playground activities. Children from 7 through 15 will compete in running, jumping, throwing and kicking events with others of their own age group. Competitors will be furnished transportation to Beatty from all playgrounds, except Mulberry. Airport is defending Junior Olympic champion, having won four consecutive years.

Warren Junior Corps Wins Youngsville First

Junior Drum and Bugle Corps of Kossuth Encampment No. 98, Odd Fellows, won first place in junior corps division in American Legion Parade in Youngsville Saturday evening. The local junior corps has marched in Pittsburgh's Bi-Centennial parade, at Frewsburg, Busti, Warren's Fourth of July parade, and at Stockton, New York. They won first place honors at Busti and Stockton.

Members of the Corps are reminded that there is no practice Wednesday night, but all should be at the Odd Fellows hall by 8:30 p. m. Thursday to march in the children's parade at Lander.

Three-Car Pileup Under Traffic Light

Failure to stop in time caused a Warren woman to hit a stopped vehicle, sending it into a third car Sunday evening. Mrs. Zella M. Wood, of 36 Pleasant Drive, rammed the rear of a car driven by L. W. Johnson, 49, of Bradford which had stopped for the traffic light at Hickory and Pennsylvania avenue.

The Johnson machine, in turn, dove into a third car, operated by Carl George Ohmer, 39, of Austin. Mrs. Ann Johnson, a passenger in the middle car, sustained a right shoulder injury. Borough Police estimated damages at $300 to the Wood car, $200 to Johnson's and $25 to the Ohmer auto. All cars were traveling east.

Askey's car hit the Milks car head on, he said, but added there were no witnesses to the crashup. McKean County (Pa.) Deputy Coroner Martin C. Hansen of Bradford said there will be an autopsy performed to determine the cause of Miss Cimbardi's death. The accident tied up traffic on the route for several hours and brought car loads of Sunday picnicers to the scene, as well as ambulances from Salamanca and Bradford. Many of those who gathered at the scene attempted to help the injured with first aid techniques pending arrival of ambulances and doctors.

The 1,200,000 people in Houston saw the storm pass a few miles to the east of the South's largest city. All airline traffic was halted and train and highway travel sharply curtailed. The city escaped with minor damage.

PLATE GLASS REPORT PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. reports record high sales of $169,613,521 for the second quarter of 1959. That figure compares with $132,256,539 for the same period in 1958. Net earnings for the second quarter were $16,283,700 or $1.64 a share, second only to the record three-month high set in the second quarter of 1955.

Guest speaker of the evening was a man familiar to all area residents, Charles Musante, who played the part of a plain clothesman for the speech making, but who in uniform, is better known as "that friendly cop on the beat." Mr. Musante chose as his topic Good Sportsmanship, pointing up that only one can win, and that the quality of the loser proves him to be a good sport, competing in a contest of fair play, ingenuity, craftsmanship, skill, and above all — sportsmanship. Mr. Musante, who for years has been interested in boys' activities, is the proud

SPECIAL NOTICE ABOUT TROPHIES All Trophy winners are urged to take their respective awards to James Jewelers, in downtown Warren for engraving, under special instruction of Derby Director Scott Humes. Runners-up and first, second and third place winners all take their coveted trophies to James Jewelers, where they have been instructed as to proper engraving for each.

founder of Warren's Hot Stove League, celebrating its tenth year of successful baseball. "little league style." Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward Betts, who presented first place trophy for Betts Machine Company; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lowrey, and son, Ed S.; Mr. and Mrs. Mike Egan; Mr. and Mrs. Sparky Saylor; Celebration Queen Jean Fowley and escort, Homer Bowersox; Jaycee President Chuck Thomas and Mrs. Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rydholm, 1958 champ's parents.

The banquet committee did a beautiful job in decorating the cafeteria using the big Soap Box Derby emblem banners streaming from the windows and proper setting, fresh garden flowers and small individual Soap Box Derby emblems spaced on the tables, together with arrangements of tiny American flags in gold crested functional forms. Following dinner, Director Scott Humes presented Dick Cook, Awards chairman, who began the joyful task of awarding the trophies and prizes to the winners. To each entrant, win or loss, went a specially engraved belt buckle, presented by the sponsors.

Class A champ — Allen Keller was awarded the beautiful second place trophy presented this year by National Forge; a wrist watch, and a five dollar gift certificate from N. K. Wendelboe's.

For emerging Class 2B champ, Bruce Matve received a wrist watch; Class C. Consolation Amard winner Jack Schumann won a watch, trophy for the fastest heat of the day which was a 23.2 seconds in the very. MOVIES TAKEN AT AWARDS DINNER Here also may be mentioned that Mrs. Irene Proukou attended the Awards Banquet with son Ted, and took what we all hope are some outstanding colored motion pictures of the affair. According to Mrs. Proukou, when the movie film is ready, she will try to show it publicly, so that all concerned may share and relive these thrilling Derby Day experiences.

Initial heat of the Derby. George Webster Class B contestant, won a camera outfit for having the best designed car. Second place trophies were awarded to Gary Swanson runner-up in Class A; trophy to Ted Proukou Class B runner-up; and second place in Class C the Consolation Division went to Dennis Seymour who received a camera.

Winner of the specially engraved Oil Can Trophy was Emory Mahan, Rambler dealer, who nosed out Schneck for the coveted prize, presented on behalf of the sponsors. Back to the champion's corner, and a look at his awards. First place trophy was presented Bruce Matve by Edward Betts, on behalf of Betts Machine Company, and the E. N. Cole Plaque awarded by General Motors division. As a special highlight, Manford Rydholm '58 champ, presented the traditional Bible to new title holder Matve in true ceremonial style.

Laugh side-line of the awards came when Mary Harland, up to her usual ruses concerning the Derby Director, came forth

Homer, president of the Bethlehem Steel Co., said in a letter to all Bethlehem employees Sunday that the union has "made agreement impossible by continuing to insist on inflationary wage and benefit increases." He said the union, in contending that employees' rights are at stake in the strike, is attempting to confuse the strikers and the public.

Vice President

(From Page One) problems that we have between our two countries." Most of the crowd remained silent, perhaps because they could not hear the vice president. The Nixon paid an overnight visit to the Khrushchev's big cream-colored country home, or dacha, in a wooded park about 20 miles outside Moscow. Nixon returned to the U.S. Embassy residence Sunday night and drafted a detailed report on the conversation for President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Herbert G. Klein, Nixon's press aide, hinted the talk did little to solve any of the major differences dividing the United States and the Soviet Union. The meeting, sixth between Khrushchev and Nixon since the vice president arrived last Thursday, may be their last.

The two leaders talked during a long Sunday dinner on a grassy, tree-shaded knoll overlooking the Moscow River. First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan and Kozlov and their wives, and U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson and President Eisenhower's brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, also were at the table.

The two leaders agreed that their rough and tumble debate at the American Exposition Friday had not offended either. The exchange, they said, was hard hitting and frank — but not belligerent. Turning to Nixon, Khrushchev asked, "were you offended?"

"Never," replied Nixon. "Mr. Khrushchev and I have some real and honest differences but we are alike in this respect: we both came from humble families and both have a practice of speaking directly and not beating around the bush."

"I agree," Khrushchev said.

The crate was given in jest, in hopes that Scott, who has accepted the directorship for next year's race, would have time to start working on his oil can for the pace setter among preliminaries.

Dana Harland, track director for Scott, made the awards presentation and speech. Appreciation was expressed by Director Humes who thanked all for cooperation received, mentioned the good fellowship that prevailed and praised the Derby as a project to weld closer family ties.

And so . . . as a wise man once said "The Youth of our Nation are the Trustees of Posterity." Let us all, parents and youngsters alike, resolve to cheerfully and willingly accept the responsibilities in participating and aiding in the process of raising the trustees of our posterity.

Huge Crowd Enjoys Colorful Parade Held in Youngsville

YOUNGVILLE—One of the largest crowds ever seen in Youngsville congregated Saturday evening to witness the American Legion-sponsored parade and attend the carnival.

There were 35 units in the parade, including three floats, Williams and Son, White Way Drive-in Theatre and BIC Class of the EUC church; two old model cars, one carrying the Youngsville High School May Queen; the other, two representatives of the Jaycees' Warren County Queen.

Lester Howe reports awards won as follows: Senior Drum and Bugle Corps — Vikings, Jamestown; Meadville Thunderbirds, second. Junior Drum Corps—Kossuth Encampment 98, IOOF.

Girls' Drum Corps—Keynotes, Erie.

Best Men's Drill Team—Clarendon VFW.

Marching Units — Falconer Fire Department; Lakewood Fire Department, second.

Best Women's Marching Unit — Women of the Moose, Jamestown; Busti Fire Department Auxiliary, second.

Best Kiltie Band—Erepa Grotto Kiltie Band of Erie.

Best Color Guard — Viking Drum Corps, Jamestown.

Best Junior Drill Team—Betty Snyder Adams' Junior Twirlettes, Franklin.

Best Twirling Corps—Beverly Johnson Twirling Corps; Warren.

Coming greatest Distance—Welland Trumpet Band, Welland, Canada.

Judging was done by the N.Y. Penn Judging Association of New York and Pennsylvania.

Frank Pavlock, 13 Fifth St. extension, was awarded the boy's bicycle given for advanced ticket sales.

Men of the Legion, especially Commander Milton Brown, have worked hard on this major fund-raising project, bringing a high class, clean exposition show to town, and the Legion-Firemen's Band, with Lester Howe as president, booked many bands and marching units for the parade.

Members of the Legion Auxiliary assisted with the advance ticket sale, also at Island Park on Saturday. All who had a hand in the very successful event are to be highly commended.

Firearms Act Violator Pleads Guilty to Charge

Kenneth Wright, 20, of 107 South Carver, pleaded guilty to a charge of violation of Uniform Firearms Acts when arraigned before Justice of Peace Martha Lawson this morning.

Wright was awaiting either $500 cash or $1,000 property bond after today's hearing.

He was picked up by Borough Police Sunday for shooting a firearm within borough limits. Wright was shooting target.

In his possession were two revolvers, for which he did not have the necessary permit.

Conference

(From Page One) not to accept any deal which will put a deadline on Allied rights there.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, who conferred with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan over the weekend, reportedly believes that limited assurances already offered by Gromyko are the best the West can hope for and should be accepted conditionally.

The condition, British informants said, is that the U.S.S.R. for the time being drop its demand for agreement on direct unification negotiations between the West German and Communist East German governments. All three Western powers were reported to agree that this price demanded by Gromyko for a stopgap Berlin settlement is completely unacceptable.

Lloyd took the lead today in sounding out Gromyko on the possibility of a change in the Soviet position. He arranged a luncheon meeting with him to be followed by a meeting of the Western Big Three and West German Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano.

Lloyd and Macmillan believe a summit meeting sooner or later is inevitable. They would like to get it on the basis of some agreement on Berlin here even though that falls short of what the West is asking.

Herter and President Eisenhower feel it is vital to stand absolutely firm in the face of Soviet threats even if there is no summit meeting. They believe the minimum the United States can accept is a Soviet pledge — with no time limit on it — not to take any action to interfere with Western occupation rights in West Berlin. The French view is said to coincide with the American.

McElroy Revises Estimate on Red I.C.B. Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union has fewer than 10 inter-continental range missiles capable of hitting the United States, Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy says.

McElroy's statement Sunday contrasted with his news conference views six months when he said "We do not believe that Russia has an ICBM capable of operation against this country at this time."

McElroy made it clear Sunday that U. S. defense leaders believe over-all American weapons "could more than match whatever the Russians will have in intercontinental ballistic missile capability."

McElroy said during a television interview with Sen. Kenneth E. Keating (R-NY) the United States must retain an ability to destroy the Soviet Union if the Soviets should attack with large weapons.

ABANDON RIVER TRIP

Word has been received that the canoe trip down the river planned by U. S. Weather Observer Vernon T. Houghton and Charles Lang, was abandoned at Oil City last week due to the low stage of the water. It is understood the voyage may be undertaken later in the summer or early fall when the condition of the stream will permit.

LIGHTNING FRANKS

Lightning that struck the home of Frank Baufch, Venango Township on Thursday started a barn fire, melted light bulbs and the door bell, blew the light switches off the wall, blew six fuses and ripped the telephone box apart. Venango Volunteer Fire Department members remained at the scene for about an hour after answering the call at 3:30 p. m.

BOGUS CHECKS

Corry police received a report Thursday that a bogus check passer in Union City had netted $204.50 from two phony checks drawn on Corry banks. A Union City police officer said the passer gave his name as Michael Miller, described as six feet two inches tall, good looking, with dark hair and eyes. Both checks were cashed at the National Bank of Union City.

36TH ACCIDENT

About six p. m. Thursday a potato chip truck from Erie driven by Charles L. Brown Jr. went out of control on a slick stretch of pavement of West Church Street, Corry, and became the 36th vehicle to crash-land on the front lawn of the Eugene Smith property. Mr. Brown was admitted to Corry Memorial Hospital with multiple abrasions and contusions and the truck and contents were a total loss. Mr. Smith reported this was the 36th accident in front of his house since he and his wife moved into it in 1929.

Date for Wedding Of Jacqueline May Be Changed

SHORT HILLS, N. J. (AP)—A spokesman for the Ralph A. Hart family says there has been some discussion about changing the date of Jacqueline Gay's wedding. It is scheduled for Aug. 29.

But the spokesman, George Gaines, did not elaborate for newsmen Sunday. He is the brother of Stanley Gaines, 25, Jacqueline's fiancé.

Hart, executive vice president of the Colgate-Palmolive Co., has ruled out immediate comment about the wedding, except to say: "As far as I know, they will be married."

The blonde, 21-year-old socialite arrived home by plane Saturday from Chicago, where she turned up after vanishing from New Jersey last Tuesday.

At first, she told police she had been abducted, but later admitted the story was a hoax. The FBI says she "sort of exploded" from the tension of elaborate wedding preparations.

Gay saw her fiancé take a plane for Pittsburgh Tuesday night. Then, as she told police, she took a bus to New York and registered at a hotel there under the name of Dagmar Anderson of Allentown, Va. She spent the night there, then took a bus to Chicago Wednesday morning. There, she heard radio reports of the furor caused by her disappearance.

By OSWALD JACOBY

South's two-club response is a classic example of the Stayman convention. He hopes his partner can show a four card heart suit which he will raise. Otherwise he will rebid to two no-trump.

West's double of two clubs is also classic. He knows that South's two-club bid is artificial and wants to tell his partner what to lead against an expected final contract in no-trump or a major suit.

North's redouble is not classic. It merely shows very good clubs and suggests that maybe West has talked when he should have kept quiet.

East likes nothing about the double but sees no point in getting into real trouble and anyway he hopes that South will show a suit of his own.

South's pass is a gamble but that is what bridge players like and West has no place to run.

In the actual play West opened to king of clubs and continued with the five after South let it hold. South played dummy's nine and eventually wound up making one overtrick at the two club contract.

What do you do now?
A—Bid five hearts. This bid invites partner to bid a slam if he can take care of one of the first two diamond leads.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Your partner bids six diamonds and you know he is showing first round control. What do you do now?

BOND SALES

Purchases of Series E and H bonds for the state of Pennsylvania during June were $30,825,697. The total for the year to date is $208,500,000 as compared to $227,200,000 last year. Sales are down approximately eight per cent from last year, but we are pleased to note that the rate of sales is continuing in our state at more than one million dollars a day. The President's recent proposals for improved terms of Savings Bonds are still being considered by the Congress. The Treasury emphasized that all bonds purchased on or after June 1 will benefit from the new terms, if the legislation is approved, regardless of the terms printed on the bond. Under the proposed new terms, it will be to the advantage of bond holders to hold onto their old bonds rather than to redeem them for purchases of new ones. The Treasury has proposed that the rate of 3 1/2 per cent interest be paid on all E and H bonds sold beginning June, 1959 and held to maturity—one half per cent higher than at present, with favorable increase in future yield for all outstanding bonds purchased before that date.

BOND SALE REPORT

United States Savings Bond purchases in Warren county were $107,492 during June, reports Harry W. Conarro, chairman of the volunteer bond committee for the county. Purchases of Series E and H bonds for the state of Pennsylvania were $30,825,697. The total for the year to date is $208,500,000 as compared to $227,200,000 last year. "Sales are down approximately eight per cent from last year," comments Charles S. Krumrine, U. S. Savings Bonds chairman for Pennsylvania, "but we are pleased to note that the rate of sales is continuing at more than one million dollars a day." Savings bonds will earn a higher rate of interest if Congress acts favorably upon pending legislation.

FENNSY APPOINTMENT

The appointment of Anthony P. Ruscio as motive power foreman for the Pennsylvania Railroad at Oil City, was announced today by Christy G. Magruder, regional manager at Buffalo. Mr. Ruscio, who has been acting motive power foreman since May, is a native of Erie and has been with the PRR since 1941. Beginning as a laborer at the Erie engine-house, Mr. Ruscio advanced to machinist helper in 1943 and entered military service shortly thereafter. He returned to the PRR in 1946 and was advanced to machinist in 1948, to locomotive inspector in 1951 and to gang foreman in 1952. After several transfers, he became gang foreman at Oil City in 1958 and later that year was promoted to assistant foreman at Buffalo's Ebenezer enginehouse. He returned to Oil City in May of this year as acting motive power foreman, replacing J. M. Bowes who has been injured in an auto accident.

Nixon Is Lauded For His Showing Against Khrush

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon is proving himself a match for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in the opinion of several Congress members.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, the assistant Democratic leader, said Nixon is "making the best of a very difficult and delicate situation" during his visit to Moscow.

"He is rolling with the punches thrown at him by Khrushchev," Mansfield said. "He is also sending back some good punches."

Nixon and Khrushchev engaged in a series of spirited exchanges as they toured the American National Exposition which Nixon formally opened in Moscow Friday.

Because Nixon is all but an avowed candidate for the 1960 Republican presidential nomination, there has been a great deal of speculation in Congress about the political effect of his trip.

Mansfield, who is no Nixon rooster, said he thinks the vice president stands to benefit at home for the way he has conducted himself thus far in a decidedly cool and often hostile atmosphere.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q—I have a GI home loan. I have been paying on for a year. I just heard that the maximum allowable GI interest rate has gone up. Does this mean I have to pay my lender more?

A—It definitely does not. Loans closed before July 2 are in no way affected by the new rate. Only loans made on or after that date can be charged the new 5 1/4 percent rate.

Q—I want to go to school under the Korean GI Bill in the fall. How soon after starting school can I expect my first GI allowance check?

A—In about two months. Under the law, VA allowance checks are payable only after completion of each month of training, and the law allows VA 20 extra days to process checks. So be prepared for a two-month wait before your first check comes.

Q—I am going to have to take a physical examination to reinstate my lapsed GI insurance policy. Who mails my medical application for reinstatement to the VA, me or my physician?

A—Your examining physician should mail it to the VA as soon as your examination is completed.

Q—If I decide to convert my term insurance to a permanent plan, must I convert it all at once, or can I convert a part at a time?

A—You may convert a part of your term insurance to permanent insurance, but the minimum amount that may be converted is $1,000. After that, conversion must be in multiples of $500.
